NEEDED: creative people with imagination to help us determine how best to advertise the 60th anniversary of St. John's Pudding Factory, this is a milestone so let's make it a memorable one. Please start thinking of how best to do promote our 60th anniversary now, and plan on coming to a meeting to discuss this on Tuesday, June 10th at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside Room. If you can not attend the meeting, but have any ideas for celebrating 60 years of pudding factory, please call Phyllis Lowe 519-886-7002 or Judy Shantz 519-743-0845 (co-ordinators of the Pudding Factory) with your suggestions.

PARKING: The parking restriction on Duke Street between Water and Francis Streets is in effect seven days a week. Free Sunday morning parking is available in the garage under city hall (enter from Young Street) and in the WLU School of Social Work lot (enter from College street which is one way and only accessible from Weber Street).

We commend to you this prayer for daily use:

Gracious and loving God,
through the waters of baptism
I accepted the call to follow Jesus as my Lord.
Journey through life with me.
Send your Holy Spirit to touch my life that I may develop and share the gifts I have been given and offer them to You in Your service with generous thanksgiving.
In the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Rt. Rev. Bruce H. W. Howe
Bishop of Huron
