He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signalled their partners in the other boat to come and help them And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Collect for the Day p. 353
Isaiah gives the grounds for his authority as a prophet. The “year” is 742 BC. Uzziah’s reign has been prosperous, but uncertain times lie ahead. Assyria is expanding its borders, and the northern kingdom, Israel, is trying to coerce Judah into a military alliance against the Assyrian threat. Back then, dreams were taken seriously.
First Lection: Isaiah 6:1-8 Ralph Nobes
Psalm 138 p. 895

Paul has heard that some at Corinth deny the physical resurrection of the body, claiming that only the spirit matters. Now he argues against this view. He repeats a statement of faith that he received and has passed on to them. Jesus was buried, so he really died. He then appeared to many (including him), so he physically rose from death – and so will we.
Second Lection: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 Alice Croft Gradual Hymn #559 vs. 1 & 2 Blessed Jesus, At Your Word

This is a story of commitment to Jesus – to his message and to his destiny. Luke has mentioned Simon (that is, Peter) in the previous chapter; now Jesus calls him to be a disciple. Luke has told us of the beginnings of hostility to Jesus. Discipleship has its risks!

February 7, 2010

Rector: Brothers and sisters in Christ,
we are all baptized by the one Spirit into one body,
and given gifts for a variety of ministries
for the common good.

Our purpose as a Parish is to be a vibrant presence in downtown Kitchener where diverse people are welcomed into a loving community that worships God, is growing in faith, and serves others in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our purpose today is to recognize and affirm the ministries for which these persons have been elected and appointed at the Annual Vestry Meeting of our Parish.

Is it your will that these people fulfill the ministries to which they have been elected and appointed?

People: It is.

The Rector addresses those to be commissioned.

You have been called to this ministry.
Will you, as long as you are engaged in this work,
perform it with care,
to the honour of God and the benefit of the Church?

Candidates: I will.

The Rector addresses the congregation.

Will you uphold these people in these ministries of leadership, stewardship and responsibility?

People: We will.

The Rector continues:

Let us pray,
Blessed are You, gracious God,
our Creator and Redeemer.
In every age You call people
To minister in Your name.
May the work of these Your servants
so build up Your church, that we may faithfully serve You and show Your love in all the world.
Blessed are You, O God,
now and forever. Amen.

The Wardens' wands will be presented.

Rector: The Lord enable and uphold you in this ministry. Let us seek God's help that we may remain faithful to Christ Jesus in all our endeavours.

All: Almighty God,
By Your grace alone
we are accepted and called to Your service.
Strengthen us by Your Holy Spirit and make us worthy of Your calling;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

The newly commissioned members return to their places.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;
and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord;
and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone.
