THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Officiant     The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with you all.

People        And also with you.

Officiant     Let us pray.

We thank you, O God, that you have again brought us together on the Lord's Day to praise
you for your goodness
and to ask your blessing.
Give us grace to see your hand
in the week that is past,
and your purpose in the week to come;
through Christ our Lord.

People        Amen.

Hymn 430

Will You Come and Follow Me

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let me name be known,

will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Collect of the Day

Officiant      Let us pray.

Almighty God,
by grace alone you call us
and accept us in your service.
Strengthen us by your Spirit,
and make us worthy of your call;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

People      Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The Readings

Reader A Reading from the Book of Jonah.
(Jonah 3:1-5,10)

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you." So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days' walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 62:5-12

arr. Robert Batasini

Refrain: Rest in God alone, rest in God alone, my soul, my soul

Yet be still my soul, and wait for God:
from whom comes my hope of deliverance.
God only is my rock and my salvation:
my tower of strength, so that I stand unshaken. Refrain

In God is my deliverance and my honor:
the rock of my strength and my place of refuge.
Put your trust in God always, you people:
pour out your hearts before the one who is our refuge.
Refrain

For we mortals are only a puff of wind;
the great among us are but illusion:

weighed in the balance they rise upward,
all of them lighter than air. Refrain

Put no trust in extortion, set no vain hopes on plunder:
if riches increase,
do not set your heart upon them. Refrain

Once God has spoken, and twice I have heard God say:
"Power belongs to God alone."
Steadfast love, O Lord, is yours:
and you reward us all according to our deeds. Refrain

Reader A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the church in Corinth. (1 Corinthians 7:29-31)

I mean, brothers and sisters, the appointed time has grown short; from now on, let even those who have wives be as though they had none, and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no possessions, and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Reader A Reading from the Gospel According to Mark.
(Mark 1:14-20)

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news." As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea - for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately

For the church throughout the world, for clergy and teachers, for parish leaders, for musicians and those who assist in leading worship, that all may proclaim the good news of God's reconciling love. We pray for Todd, our Bishop; Preston, our Rector; and other worshipping communities in our community and beyond. For help in finding ways to work together to bring light to our world,

Reader        Let us pray.
People        Have mercy, O God.

For skies and seas, for birds and fish, for favorable weather and clean water for all, and for the well-being of creation, that God will raise up advocates and scientists to guide our care for all the earth,

Reader        Let us pray.
People        Have mercy, O God.

For those who provide leadership in our cities and around the world, for President Biden, Vice-President Harris, and the new administration in the United States, for nonprofit and nongovernmental organizations, for planning commissions and homeless advocates, that God will inspire all people in the just use of wealth,

Reader        Let us pray.
People        Have mercy, O God.

For those who are sick, distressed, or grieving; for the outcast and all who await relief, including those we now name aloud or remember in silence, (A time of reflection), that in the midst of suffering, God's peace and mercy may surround them,

Reader        Let us pray.
People        Have mercy, O God.

For our parish and community, for families and those who live alone, and for the organizations that meet here during the week, that God's steadfast love may serve as a model for all relationships,

Reader Let us pray.
People Have mercy, O God.

In thanksgiving for our ancestors in the faith whose lives serve as an example of gospel living, that they may point us to salvation through Christ,

Reader Let us pray.
People Have mercy, O God.

Merciful God, hear the prayers of your people, spoken or silent, for the sake of the one who dwells among us, your Son, Jesus Christ our Saviour. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant Gathering our prayers and praises into one let us pray as our Saviour taught us,

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Hymn 432

Jesus Call Us! O'er the Tumult

1. Jesus calls us! O'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea,
day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
saying, "Christian, follow me!"
2. As of old Saint Andrew heard it by the Galilean lake, turned from home and toil and kindred,
leaving all for his dear sake.
3. Jesus calls us from the worship of the vain world's golden store,
from each idol that would keep us,
saying, "Christian, love me more."
4. In our joy and in our sorrows, days of toil and hours of ease,
still he calls, in cares and pleasure,
"Christian, love me more than these."
5. Jesus call us! by thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear thy call,
give our hearts to thine obedience,
serve and love thee best of all.
